Rochester-Area Homeowners Invited to Two Downsizing Education Events in Webster

October 20 and 22 sessions will cover asset protection, moving decisions and senior living transitions

ROCHESTER, N.Y. | October 12, 2026 - Homeowners considering a move to a smaller home or a different living arrangement will have an opportunity to hear from local professionals during two “Am I Ready to Downsize?” educational events in Webster this month.

Lalla Fitzpatrick, a licensed associate real estate broker with RE/MAX Plus, is promoting the sessions on Tuesday, October 20, and Thursday, October 22, at Proietti's Italian Restaurant, 980 Ridge Road, Webster. Both evenings begin at 6:30 p.m.

The October 20 session will feature John F. D'Aurizio, a New York attorney who has practiced since 1998 and focuses on real estate law. He will discuss considerations for protecting assets as people age.

On October 22, Neil Russell, owner of Caring Transitions and Assisted Living Locators of Rochester, will discuss how to begin the downsizing process and navigate moving, senior living placement and estate transitions.

The programs are intended for older adults, homeowners approaching retirement, and family members helping loved ones evaluate housing choices. Topics include planning ahead, understanding available options and preparing for the practical demands of a move.
